

Recognition of Overseas Qualifications

An 'Overseas Qualification Recognition assessment advice' is an official document issued by the South Australian Government showing the education level comparison of an overseas gained qualification to the Australian Qualifications Framework (AQF).

Immigration SA offers a FREE and confidential assessment service to have your overseas qualifications recognised in Australia.

Benefits

- Assists employers/recruiters to understand your overseas education level in the Australian context
- Provides evidence that your overseas qualification(s) meets job requirements
- Assists with determining training pathways, career planning and job progression
- May help to meet professional registration, licencing, membership requirements
- Can be used to determine your wage/award level.

Eligibility

Applicants must:

- > Live in South Australia;
- > Be an Australian citizen or eligible visa holder with work rights;
- > Have completed a higher or technical/vocational qualification overseas

Please note we cannot assess:

- Qualifications for migration purposes
- Qualifications less than 1 semester or 6 months of full-time study
- School qualifications - primary, secondary
- Incomplete qualifications
- Single subjects
- Work experience
- English language skills
- Australian qualifications

How to apply

1. Log in or register via Immigration SA Apply Website apply.migration.sa.gov.au
2. Navigate to the Services section view Overseas Qualification Recognition and select Apply Now
3. Read the Recognition of Overseas Qualifications Document checklist
4. Carefully prepare all documents as outlined (see reverse side)
5. Complete the online application form
6. NOTE: you can track the progress of your application through your Immigration SA Apply Website

IMPORTANT

Assessments are for general employment purposes only. An Assessment Advice is not a qualification equivalency or a statement of competency. Assessments do not replace industry required registration, licencing, or membership.
