

Business Migration in South Australia

Significant Investor Visa

South Australian State nomination is available to successful business owners and investors who intend to engage in investment activity in South Australia.

The Significant Investor Visa

This is a visa stream for high net worth individuals, who must invest a minimum of AUD $5 million into Complying Investments for four years.

There are no age limits, points test and flexible English language requirements for this visa stream.

This is a two-stage visa process, commencing with a provisional visa and finishing with permanent residency if all the requirements are achieved whilst on the provisional visa.

This visa requires nomination by the South Australian State Government at each stage before lodging a visa application with the Commonwealth Government. Visas are provided through the Department of Home Affairs.

Stage 1:

Provisional Visa Nomination Application

Visa category: Significant Investor (subclass 188c) Provisional Visa

Eligible investors are issued a four-year provisional visa during which the main applicant is required to undertake one or more Complying Investments. During that time, they must reside in Australia for at least 160 days. Visa holders can apply to extend their provisional visa to up to eight years if required.

Eligibility

To secure State nomination from South Australia for the Significant Investor visa, applicants must Commit to investing at least A$5 million in complying investments as defined by the Austrade complying investment framework where the complying investment materially benefits the South Australian economy or provide a commitment to South Australia. The intention to achieve one or both requirements are required at the time of application. The name of the fund is also required to be provided at time of application. A commitment is also required to meet in person with Skilled & Business Migration within two months of visa activation and provide six monthly updates on activities in South Australia.

Requirements while holding a provisional visa

The main applicant is not required to but is encouraged to reside in South Australian to meet the 160 day residency requirement.
