Open a bank account

It is recommended that you open a bank account as soon as possible. Banking records may be useful as a reference when you are looking for rental accommodation, getting a mobile phone and more.

It is highly recommended that you contact different providers and compare their services and charges so that you can choose the one that best suits your needs. There are quite a few banking providers in South Australia with language support. Please note that it is possible to change banks at any time if their services no longer meet your needs.

It is advisable to open a bank account within six weeks of your arrival, as you usually need only your passport as identification. Please contact the bank for further details regarding the additional identification.

There are some banks in Adelaide that offer business migrant focused services and Chinese language support, please check with the bank branches if you need specific services.

Apply for a Tax File Number

Everyone who receives any income in Australia needs a Tax File Number (TFN). Income includes wages or salary from a job, money earned from investments and government payments. You can register over the internet 24 hours a day, 7 days a week. Otherwise, you can fill in an application form. If you choose to apply online, keep the reference number and your TFN will be posted to you within 28 days.

Be sure to advise your bank of your TFN to avoid higher rates of taxation on interest earned.

Please note that the above is only a reference, for more information, please contact:

•Tax File Number registration website www.ato.gov.au/individuals

Register for AMEP English classes

English language courses for new arrivals in Australia are provided under the Adult Migrant English Programme (AMEP). You can call or visit to book an appointment for registration.

•Equal Opportunity Commission www.eoc.sa.gov.au

Connection of Utilities

Telephone Line

Telstra and Optus are the two main carriers of home telephone services in Australia. Telstra is the company that owns the telephone infrastructure. If you are moving into a property with an existing phone line, you can simply arrange for the line to be reconnected. If you are moving into a property that doesn't have a phone line, you will need to pay to have a new line put in.

- Telstra Tel: 1800 678 876 www.telstra.com.au
- Optus Tel: 1800 501 064 www.optus.com.au

Electricity & Gas

You will need to open an account in your name for gas and/or electricity before you move into a property. To obtain a quote for connection please contact any one of these providers:

- AGL (electricity and gas) Tel: 131 245, www.agl.com.au
- Origin (electricity and gas) Tel: 132 463, www.originenergy.com.au
- TRUenergy (electricity and gas) Tel: 133 466, www.truenergy.com.au

- Catholic Education Office www.cesa.catholic.edu.au

Purchase private health insurance

Please be aware that Medicare benefits are not available for provisional visa holders. It is important to protect your health and it is always hard to predict what can go wrong and where, especially if you have children, so Immigration SA highly recommends that you buy a private health insurance to cover your family. Please be aware that there may be waiting periods which the health insurance companies may impose, for example, there's a 12 month waiting period to cover pregnancy related treatment.

Ambulance services are not free and can be very expensive; you should seriously consider Ambulance cover as a top priority. Some health covers also cover ambulance costs. Please study and compare insurance products from different private health insurance providers and make the choice which best suits your needs and situation. Please make sure you understand what you sign.
